MANATEE UNVEILED IN SOUTH MIAMI

Perfect Balance Martial Arts and Fitness, along with artist Alex Yanes, helped kick off South Miami's first-ever public art event – South Miami Manatee Fest. Unveiling a large Asian-influenced seven-foot manatee sculpture painted by the talented artist, Perfect Balance Martial Arts and Fitness is one of the organizations participating in the historic public art event currently taking place on the streets of the quaint village of South Miami.

Among the attendees were local dignitaries and South Miami residents, including the honorable Mayor of South Miami Philip Stoddard and Heather Bettner, president of Prince Media Development and producer of the South Miami Manatee Fest. Manatees will be on display for six months then they will be auctioned off with proceeds going to local charities.
